TRANSFER OF COPYRIGHT AGREEMENT

Manuscript # _____

Part 1. Transfer of Copyright Agreement

Complete copyright to the article entitled:

is hereby transferred to the American Academy of Otolaryngology – Head and Neck Surgery Foundation, Inc. (for U.S. government employees: to the extent transferable), effective if and when the article is accepted for publication in Otolaryngology – Head and Neck Surgery. Copyright is assigned in all forms and media (whether now known or hereafter developed), throughout the world, in all languages, for the full term of copyright and all extensions and renewals thereof. This transfer includes the right to adapt the presentation of the article for use in conjunction with computer systems and programs, including reproduction or publication in machine-readable form and incorporation in retrieval systems. In the case of authors who are officers or employees of the U.S. government, the American Academy of Otolaryngology – Head and Neck Surgery Foundation, Inc. recognizes that works prepared as part of their official government duties are in the public domain. If there are a number of co-authors, of which at least one is a U.S. government employee (and this work was prepared in such capacity) and at least one is not a government employee, the non-government author(s) should sign this form, indicating transfer of those rights which such author(s) has.

Authors reserve the following rights:

- Patent and trademark rights to any process or procedure described in the article.
- The right to include the article in full or in part in a thesis or dissertation provided that the thesis or dissertation is not to be published commercially.
- The right to photocopy or make electronic copies of the article for their own personal use, including for their own classroom use, or for the personal use of colleagues, provided that the copies are not offered for sale and are not distributed in a systematic way outside of the employing institutions (e.g., via an e-mail list).
- The right to retain a pre-print version of the article on an electronic public server.
- The right to post the final published version of the article on a secure network (not accessible to the public) within the authors' institutions.
- The right, subsequent to publication, to use the article or any part thereof, free of charge in a printed compilation of works of their own, such as collected writings or lecture notes.
- If the article is a 'work for hire' made within the scope of the authors' employment, the employer may use all or part of the information in this article for intra-company use.
- The right to present the paper at a meeting or conference and to hand copies of the paper to the delegates attending the meeting.
- The right to prepare derivative works, with full acknowledgement to the American Academy of Otolaryngology – Head and Neck Surgery Foundation, Inc.
- The right to extend the article into book-length form, with full acknowledgement to the American Academy of Otolaryngology – Head and Neck Surgery Foundation, Inc.
- The right to re-use parts of the paper in other works.

Part 1 is to be signed by at least one of the authors who agrees to inform the others, if any. Please return this form as soon as possible. This signed agreement must be received by the Editor before the manuscript can be processed for publication.
